Ahmad is a paralegal in the firm's Community Association Group where he works primarily in the collection department. Ahmad has over seven years of experience as a paralegal.

As one of two paralegals for the Condominium Association Service Group, Ahmad assists in supporting attorneys in areas involving drafting demand letters, motions, preparing document for trial and performing post-judgment collection. He also serves as the primary contact for condominium association property managers in respect to the firm's Condo Extranet Site.

Prior to his time at LP, Ahmad worked at a corporate lease financing company where he focused on collection, as well as other areas of the law such as litigation, corporate and transactional matters.
