

Levenfeld Pearlstein Strengthens Community Association Group with Addition of Adam Kahn

April 26, 2018

CHICAGO, April 24, 2018 - Levenfeld Pearlstein LLC (LP) is pleased to announce that Adam Kahn has joined the firm as an associate in LP's Community Association Group. Adam helps cooperative, condominium, and homeowners associations navigate a variety of legal, financial and commercial issues. He is deft at reviewing, negotiating and modifying governing documents, lease agreements, policy documents and commercial contracts and is a pragmatic, trusted advisor with a patient and fair approach to problem-solving. Adam's clients usually request his attendance at monthly board meetings, where his level head and industry acumen prove instrumental in effective policy-making and business planning.

Prior to joining LP, Adam worked at a New York boutique real estate firm where he offered practical, comprehensive legal advice to community associations. He graduated from Emory University School of Law after completing his undergraduate education at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

About the Community Association Group:

LP's Community Association Group assists in solving the business problems of condominium developers and community associations from A to Z (contract review, collections, employment issues, litigation, governance legal advice). The group helps property managers and management companies manage community associations in compliance with Illinois condominium law and helps condominium and HOA developers develop properties into community associations. No matter the challenge, the group successfully handles anything and everything condominium or community association related.

About Levenfeld Pearlstein LLC: Twice recognized by The National Law Journal as one of the nation's most innovative mid-sized law firms, Chicago-based Levenfeld Pearlstein, LLC provides legal and business counsel to sophisticated clients across a broad range of corporate, tax, real estate, and litigation matters. LP works with clients to understand the full impact of the law on their businesses and proactively addresses their legal issues so that they can quickly return to doing what they do best.

While the firm possesses the resources and depth necessary to manage the most complex matters in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible, it truly differentiates itself through its commitment to "The LP Way". Unique among corporate law firms, the LP Way is the firm's model for creating an unparalleled client experience at an exceptional value. This is accomplished by complementing outstanding legal work with a commitment to knowing the client; avoiding surprises; moving with speed and quality; and establishing and consistently beating client expectations. All of these grounded in the belief that every action should point toward a single goal: making the experience of being an LP client as rewarding as possible.
