Andrea Maciejewski lends her talents to Levenfeld Pearlstein:

- As the firm's Chief Marketing & Engagement Officer,
- where she directs the Marketing, Business Development, and Client Relationship teams
- and leads to help create a new kind of experience for their clients

In her career she has:

- Introduced unprecedented transparency to working with lawyers and firms, typically a secretive bunch
- Executed a client experience program that actually generates revenue; and
- Drove innovation in how professional service firms engage

This has been demonstrated through:

- Groundbreaking use of video;
- Unique recruiting approaches;
- Client feedback programs;
- Leveraging data to drive strategy; and
- Charitable partnerships that impact.

Her work has been praised by:

Professionally obsessed with:

- KPIs
- Communication planning

- Creating connections

Personally:

- Is married
- Has four kids
- Lives in Glen Ellyn
- Reads a book a week

Common Andrea phrases include:

- "I have an idea."
- "I refuse to accept that."
- "I'd rather go first."
- "Thank you."
